While making rounds, a doctor points out an x-ray to a group of medical students. "As you can see," she says, "the patient limps because his left fibula and tibia are radically arched. Michael, what would you do in a case like this?"

"Well," ponders the student, "I suppose I would limp, too."

YOU KNOW YOU ARE GETTING OLDER WHEN...

...You and your teeth don't sleep together.
...You try to straighten out the wrinkles in your socks and discover you aren't wearing any.
...At the breakfast table you hear 'snap, crackle, pop', but you're not eating cereal.
...Your back goes out but you stay home.
...You wake up looking like your driver's license picture.
...It takes two tries to get up off the couch.
...Your idea of a night out is sitting on the patio.
...Happy Hour is a nap.
...When you say something to your kids that your mother said to you, and you always hated it.

A young woman sat in her stalled car, waiting for help. Finally, two men walked up to her car. "I'm out of gas," she purred. "Could you push me to the gas station?" The men readily put their muscles to the car and rolled it several blocks. After a while, one looked up, exhausted, to see that they had just passed a gas station. "We just passed a gas station! How come you didn't turn in?" he yelled. "Oh, I never go in there," the woman shouted back. "They don't have full service!"

A woman was trying hard to get the ketchup to come out of the bottle. As she struggled, the phone rang so she asked her 5-year old daughter to answer the phone. "It's the Minister, mommy," the child said to her mother. Then she spoke into the receiver, adding "Mommy can't come to the phone right now. She's hitting the bottle."
