RECREATION BOARD NEWS

We hope you all had a terrific, relaxing summer.

Thanks to everyone who attended our Car Bingo fundraiser grounds on August 15th. 71 cars passed through the gates. We paid out over $2,000 in prizes. The 50/50 raffle paid out $1135. We hope to make this an annual event. We plan on having another Christmas Raffle in December. We had a strong sponsorship last time, and we are hoping for more of the same. If you have anything you would like to donate, please contact any member of the Recreation Board. Also, a big thankyou to the people who donate their SARCAN bottles and cans to the Englefeld Recreation Board.

After 30 years of marriage, a husband and wife came to see a therapist. When asked what the problem was, the wife went into a tirade listing every problem they ever had in the years they had been married. She went on: neglect, lack of affection, emptiness, loneliness, feeling unloved and unlovable... an entire laundry list of unmet needs she had endured.

Finally, after allowing this for a sufficient length of time, the therapist got up, walked around the desk and after asking the wife to stand, he embraced and kissed her long and passionately as the husband watched. The woman shut up and quietly sat down as though in a daze.

The therapist turned to the husband and said, 'This is what your wife needs at least 3 times a week. Can you do that?'

"Well, I can drop her off here on Mondays and Wednesdays, but on Fridays, I fish."

Some of the animals on Noah's Ark decided to play baseball. One team was headed by an elephant, the other a giraffe. By the fourth inning, the score was 9-0 in favor of the elephant's team. In the fifth inning, a hard drive was stopped by a centipede in a neat catch. "What a great catch!" said the giraffe to the centipede. "Where were you in the first four innings?" The centipede answered, "I was putting on my sneakers."

FIELD PICK-UP OR DELIVERY

After ordering a milkshake, a man had to leave his seat in the restaurant to make a phone call. Since he didn't want anyone to take his drink, he took a paper napkin, and wrote on it: 'The world's strongest weightlifter,' and left it under his glass.

When he returned from making his call, the glass was empty. Under it was a new napkin that said: "Thanks for the treat!" It was signed, 'The World's Fastest Runner.'

A rancher walked up to the window at the post office, where a new clerk was sorting mail. "Any mail for Mike Howe?" the rancher asked.

The clerk ignored him, so the rancher repeated his question in a louder voice. Without looking up, the clerk said, "No, none for your cow, and none for your horse either."
