Today I went to a barber's shop for a shave. The barber asked me to put a small wooden ball in my mouth so he could get a closer shave around my cheeks. I asked, "But what if I swallow the ball?" "No problem, sir," he replied, "You can just bring it back tomorrow like everyone else."

After a prolonged drought, when the rain finally came, all the animals in the forest were happy except the kangaroo. When the others asked what the reason was for such sadness, the Kangaroo replied, "All this rain means that all my kids will now be playing inside."

Two crows were in a field when they noticed a figure that looked like a man in the distance. "See that over there? What is that?" says the first crow.

The second crow takes a long look, "That's a scarecrow. Looks authentic, doesn't it!"

"How can you tell it's a scarecrow and not a person?" replies the first crow.

"Look at it's hand. No cellphone," says the second crow.

A mother and father were chatting with their eight year old son about his future. The youngster said he'd like to attend Cornell, as his parents and other members of the family had. Pleased with his response, they pressed on. "What would you like to take when you attend college?" they asked the little boy.

After giving it some thought and glancing around the kitchen, he replied, "The refrigerator, if you can get along without it."
