A man went to his lawyer and told him, "My neighbor owes me $500 and he won't pay up. What should I do?"
"Do you have any proof he owes you the money?" asked the lawyer.
"Nope," replied the man.
"Okay, then write him a letter asking him for the $5,000 he owes you," said the lawyer.
"But it's only $500," replied the man.
"Precisely. That's what he will reply and then you'll have your proof."

Senior's News... A meeting was held at the New Horizon's of the Englefeld Senior's Monday May 26th.

Business was discussed and the Secretary Treasurer Christal Nordick brought us up to date on our financial situation.

A motion was made to purchase a new central vac system. Also for Charlie Biemans to look into pricing of new doors to help establish air flow in summer. Charlie also reported on Bunz fan installation, duct work, and sound-proofing to be done.

Dolly Bannerholt retired from her many years of faithful service to our Senior's. We thank her very much for her dedication and all the extra work she has done in and out of her capacity as our President.

Alice Radoux, new President (287-3138)

Otto Witte, vice president

Please call me if you want anything discussed or given attention to. Our next meeting will likely be in Sept. Have a great summer all!

-Alice

A man walked into the doctor's office looking exhausted.

"Doctor," he said, "I'm at my wit's end. My wife has the shortest fuse I've ever seen. She gets angry over nothing, and it's making my life miserable. What can I do?"

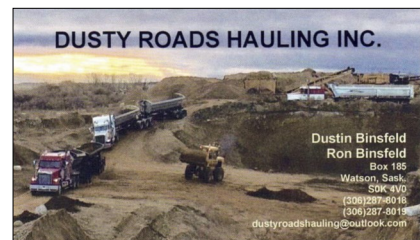

The doctor smiled knowingly and said, "I have just the remedy.

Whenever you sense your wife is about to get angry, quickly take a glass of water. Start swishing—but whatever you do, don't swallow it until she's calm or leaves the room."

Two weeks later, the man returned looking like a new person—relaxed, cheerful; practically glowing.

"Doctor, it worked like magic!" he said. "Every time she started getting upset, I swished and swished... and somehow, things just stayed peaceful."

The doctor chuckled and said, "The water isn't magic. It's the fact that you're keeping your mouth shut that saves you."

Recipe:

Ramen Noodle Cabbage Salad

Ingredients: 1 16oz bag of coleslaw mix 1 16oz bag of broccoli slaw mix 1/2 C shelled sunflower seeds (unsalted) 1/2 C pumpkin seeds (unsalted) 1 C sliced or slivered almonds	2 pkgs chicken flavoured ramen noodles 5 stalks green onions, sliced Dressing: 3/4 C veg oil 1/3 C white vinegar 1/2 C granulated sugar 2 packets seasoning from ramen noodles
---	--

Combine slaw mixes, nuts, seeds, and ramen (uncooked & broken into bite sized pieces) in large bowl. Whisk together dressing ingredients well, then pour over salad mix, then stir to coat. Mix roughly 3 hours ahead of when needed. Keeps well for a couple days!

SCC NEWS...

The Englefeld School Community Council has been busy with supporting many school activities and events over the past few months. The SCC has sponsored several breakfasts for the students, including oatmeal, cereal, and granola bars to keep our students fed and fueled! The SCC put on a jerky fundraiser, and provided monetary support to the Archery club to attend a competition in Shaunavon. Snacks were donated to the track and field athletes before they headed off to the Pre-District meet in Watson. Upcoming items include a new Community Service Award we are promoting, as well as attending an SCC Workshop on June 2nd. In June and September, we are encouraging students to participate in "bring your own bowl, spoon/fork" events in support of our Eco-School efforts. It's been a great year and we look forward to future involvement with our school and community!

Our SCC members this year are: Chairperson—Shelley van der Buhs, Vice-Chair and temporary Secretary/Treasurer—Tanya Smith, Myra Tweidt, Maria de Jesús Barragán, Jorge Francisco Bobadilla, and Breeanna Edgar Hoffman.

"Schools work best when parents, communities and schools work together"

A five year old boy wanders off in a hardware store. He soon realizes he is alone and can't find his Dad. The boy goes outside searching the parking lot. He finds a policewoman. "I've lost my dad," he says. "Oh no," she replies, attentively. "What's he like?" "Golf and beer," the boy answers.
