Holy Guardian Angels Parish News

Big thanks to the generosity of parishioners this past couple of years as we hit a big milestone of $90,000 in our bank account. With this happening, we have decided to change the rug in the church. The installed price is $24,000 without the removal of the furniture. To save money, we need help for the removal of the benches and furniture, tearing out the old rug, and screwing down the floor to hopefully get rid of squeaks. We will need this help the week of October 11th and it will take several days or nights for this to get accomplished. We have until the 20th to have everything ready for the floor to be laid. Then the following week to put it all back. Again we will be asking for your help! At this time we are hoping to put benches on trailers and store in the rink on the ice surface. We are also looking at Sea Cans instead of trailers.

Please let Michael know if you can help at 306-287-7939. The more help the quicker the process! There is lots to be done and any help from young, strong people would be hugely appreciated. Thanks!

October 18th and 25th weekend Sunday masses cancelled.

Tuesday masses the 14th and 21st and possibly 27th mass canceled.

On a scorching hot summer afternoon, I walked past the mini golf course where a dad and his three little kids were putting a round. "Who's winning? I asked cheerfully. "I am," said one, loudly. "No, I am," shouted another. "Noooo, I am!" screamed the youngest. "No," the dad said with a smile, "their mom is."

A woman went to the grocery store to buy a turkey for her big family dinner. She searched through all the frozen turkeys but couldn't seem to find one large enough. So she asked a young employee, "Do these turkeys get any bigger?" With a straight face, he replied, "No ma'am... they're not growing anymore."

A boy asks his father, "Dad, are bugs good to eat?"

"That's gross, don't talk about things like that over dinner," the dad replies. After dinner, the father asks the son, "Now, son, what did you want to ask me?"

"Oh, nothing," the boy says. "There was a bug in your soup at dinner but now it's gone."

During his checkup, the doctor asked the man about his daily physical activity.

He replied, "Well, just yesterday I waded along a lake, had about 8 beers, ran from a pack of wild dogs, dodged a rattlesnake, climbed a few rocky hills, accidentally stood in poison ivy, crawled out of quicksand, and had to take a few bathroom breaks behind trees."

The doctor raised an eyebrow and said, "Wow! You must be quite the outdoorsman."

The man shook his head and laughed, "Nah, I'm just a really bad golfer."

A woman goes out for a walk. She comes to a river and sees a man on the opposite bank.

"Yooohooo!" she shouts, "How can I get across to the other side?"

The man looks up the river, then down the river, then shouts back, "You ARE on the other side!"

For his annual physical exam, a 90 year old man went to his doctor. A few days later, the doctor saw the elderly man walking down the street with a gorgeous woman on his arm. A couple days later, the doctor talked to the man and said, "You're doing really great, aren't you?"

The man replied, "Just doin' what you told me Doc, 'Get a hot mamma and be cheerful.'" The doctor gasped, "I didn't say that! I said you got a heart murmur, be careful!"

There was a little boy in kindergarten. At the end of one cold winter day, when all the other children were leaving, the teacher found him crying. She asked him what was wrong. He sobbed, “I can’t find my boots.”

The teacher looked around the classroom and saw a pair of boots. “Are these yours?” she asked. “No, they’re not,” said the little boy, shaking his head. The teacher and the boy searched all over the classroom for his boots.

Finally, the teacher gave up, “Are you suuuure these boots aren’t yours?”

“I’m sure,” the boy sniffled, “mine had snow on them.”
